No.M.C.156 Belgaum,22 March 1945.

Ref:-Your No.62 Confdl. dated 13-2-1945.

I enclose applications from the following persons for the post of the 1st. Assistant Police Prosecutor, --- Belgaum:-

(1) R.B.M.M.LAD,
(2) Mr.R.S.Mahantshetti,
(3) " B.S.Ternikar,
(4) " N.I.Chimde.

The work of R.B.M.M.Lad, the present incumbant is quite satisfactory and I do not consider that the --- remaining applicants are in any way better suited. I, therefore, recommend the continuance of R.B.Lad.

- District Magistrate, Belgaum.

Through the District and Sessions Judge, Belgaum w.cs.

Confidential

rewarded with compliments.

2. I fully support the District Magistrate's recommendation. Rao Bahadur Lad has proved to be a painstaking and conscientious Assistant in whose hands the interests of the prosecution are very safe indeed. For ability, industry, and experience he is now better qualified than any of the other applicants; and in other respects too he is the most suitable choice

Choice for the First Assistant's post.

3. I would like to suggest that application need be invited only when a new appointment is to be made after termination the appointment of the old incumbent and not when the old incumbent is to be continued in office
